One great drawback is the want of Haute is the natural center or head of this place; tenements, it would make Terre Haute the most lovely and attractive place in the West. But its present appearance, however, is that of a welliressed man with an exceedingly seedy hat on! The most of the good business houses run east from the northeast corner of the square on a street comparatively narrow, dark and damp, whereas, the streets around the public square are broad, dry, airy and light. We would give, (and we have heard a number of others so express themselves) twenty five per cent. more rent for a commodious modernized business house on the square than elsewhere; for besides this being the natural place for business, it would be so much more pleasant to do business here. We cannot understand why the owners of property on the public square do not improve it, (its present condition is a disgrace to them and to the whole city.) unless they are too poor !- or they may be too rich to care about making their property productive-for we would venture our existence that stylish and commodious business blocks on the public square would command at least twentyfive per cent, more rent than in any other part of

W. F. SHAW'S PATENT AERIFIED GAS APPARATUS

THE public can now be supplied with my patented apparatus for Cooking and Heating by Gas and Air, which are now coming into very general use, and to The Governor of North Carolina which I beg leave to call the attention of housekeepers and gas companies. Many attempts have been made to use gas in cookery and for heating apartments, but most of them have failed to meet the expectations of inventors and consumers. In the apparatus furnished by me, the requisites of Economy, Comfort, Neatness, Convenience, Uniformity of Result, and Improvement in the Quality of the Food, have been attained. From the peculiar manner of combustion, all possibility of creating smoke or nexious and unwholesome vapor is prevented. The meats retain all their juices, and acquire a rich and delicate flavor, which no other process can impart. Much time and labor are saved in attendance, making of fires, &c., while the perfection and uniformity of the result are of great importance. The process of roasting bread and pastry is a great improvement over the usual method of baking in

Night Dispatches. CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, April 30. SENATE -Mr. Harris presented a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce of New York on a system of taxation Mr. Wade, from the Committee on the Conduct of the War, made a report in relation to the barbarous treatment of our soldiers at Manassas. The report was ordered to be printed. On motion of Mr. Wade, the Homestead bill was taken up. Mr. Carlile offered a substitute for the bi which was postponed till to-morrow.

Nesmith introduced a bill to amend the act of 1857 for a military hospital for invalid soldiers Mr. Powell's resolution calling on the Secretary of State for information concerning the arrest Mr. Powell said he had been much annoyed at the opposition to this resolution. The substitute offered by the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. Sumner) was merely an attempt to avoid getting the information asked for.

After some debate the morning hour expired The confiscation bill was then taken up and Messrs. Wilson and Wright spoke in its favor, and McDougal against it. After further discussion Mr. Cowans's motion to refer the bill was rejected-18 against 22. Adjourned. HOUSE .- Mr. Eliot submitted two bills, one to confiscate rebel property, and to provide for the payment of the expenses of the present rebellion, and the other to provide for freeing the slaves of all rebels who have taken up arms Mr. Wickliffe asked leave to introduce a resolution of inquiry to ascertain by what authority Gen. Hunter had issued an order to emancipate slaves in the manner expressed by Messrs. Hutchins, Lovejoy and others.

The resolutions reported from the Committee and nurses, under the direction of Dr. W. S. on Government Contracts was taken up. Mr. Stevens's motion to lay them on the table await the result of the next battle if necessary.

was rejected-yeas 17, navs 107. The following resolution was read: Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be requested to adjust the claim against the Government for the 5,000 Hall's carbines purchased through Simon Stevens by Gen. Jno. C. Fremont | General. on the 6th of August, 1861, and afterwards de livered at the United States arsenal at the city of St. Louis, on the base of sale of such arms to the Government for $12 50 each, rejecting all GAL EN'S HEAD DISPENSARY other demands against the Government on ac count of the purchase of said arms.

the fresolution by making it read "purchased from Simon Stevens. Mr. Fenton moved to amend the resolution by adding, "provided that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exonerate the Government from the payment of any claims arising from advances made in good faith on certifications by authorized officers of the Government

This was rejected by a vote of 53 against 71. The resolution as originally reported was then adopted by 123 against 28. The House adopted a resolution censuring Mr. Cameron by a vote of 79 against 45. A resolution censuring Mr. Welles, Secretary of the Navy, was rejected by 48 against 72. The House then went into Committee of the not much progress made on it. The House then adjourned. From Tennessee.

reports Humboldt occupied by small rebel force engaged in throwing up defensive works. He brings Memphis papers of the 26th. They contain little matter of interest further than confirmation of the fall of Orleans. The Avalanche grumbles that the rebel authorities suppress details in regard to affairs, and says nothing but the bare fact of the surrender is known. The same paper says:

Southern people are fast losing all confidence in their river defenses. It is generally admitted that the Federal army can be no longer successfully resisted. It also intimates a lack of stability in the Southern Confederacy by advising case at home, free from danger or curiosity.

All transactions private and confidential. Remember its patrons to invest whatever money they have in real estate, while they can purchase it with money now in use, which is principally rebel treasury notes. The conscription law is rigidly enforced, the Union men secreting themselve, or flying to aveid its operations. Refugees report that merchants of avowed secession proclivities are removing their goods to places of concealment. The idea of burning the town is abandoned in consequence of the determined opposition of prop-It is currently reported at Memphis that Beauregard has not exceeding 80,000 men at Corinth.

There is no hope of his successfully resisting Halleck, who is believed to have 200,000. As our informant left Memphis it was reported that the rebel gunboat fleet from New Orleans was in sight and bound up the river to join Hol A steamer just arrived from Pittsburg reports a serious skirmish between the advance guard of the Federal army, five thousand strong, and a large body of the rebel army, five miles from Corinth. The Federals were victorious. No mention was made of the losses on either side. The Federals took twenty-nine prisoners. Connonading was still heard when the steamer left.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 30 .- A letter received here from a gentleman high in authority in Tennessee. contains the following: Say to the Postmaster General that we are succeeding beyond our most sanguine expectations. As soon as the rebel army are driven beyond the limits of Tennessee, the State will stand for the Union by an over whelming majority. I hope the Government will be impressed with the absolute necessity of the army entering East Tennessee. They are murdering and pillaging our people by thousands. Their acts of infamy and barbarity are without parallel. The letter conclues:-Great God! is there no relief for that people?

The Postoffice Department has reported the following offices in Tennessee: Murfreesboro, Springfield and Franklin. If the Administration should not in all respects meet the expectations of the country the failure will not be for want of volunteer advice on war, financial and slavery questions. Numerous letters professing it being constantly received from all parts of the United States and even from foreign lands. It is not probable that smuggling goods into Virginia from the Chesapeake Bay and adjacent places will much longer be profitable. From Cairo. CAIRO, April 30 .- The water in the Ohio rose

The Cambridge sailed hence for Wilmington on Sunday. The Mount Vernon's boilers are defective but she will return to her station in a few days. There is but little news.

Fort Casswell is being strengthened by the rebels in expectation of an attack. The schooner Kate from Nassau was captured by the Mount Vernon about two weeks ago while attempting to run the blockade.

From Banks's Division. HARRISONBURG, VA., April 28 .- Through se cession channels it is learned that the Governor of North Carolina was arrested and imprisoned in Richmond two weeks ago on account of his Union septiments. It was observed to-day that Jackson had re moved his wagon trains back some six miles since yesterday indicating his intention to retire still further rearward or else entertaining a dread of any attack on him by our forces.

A squadron of cavalry was the only force discovered to-day on the right side of the Shenan doah. These, with one wagon, entered the vilry of State for information concerning the arrest of persons in the State of Kentucky was taken up.

We have nothing confirmatory of the occupation of Staunton by Gen Milroy. The river is still too high to attempt a passage with safety. A dense smoke was seen in that direction to-day, but the cause is unknown.
